

Employment Strategies for the Mature Worker

In Today's Economy and Tomorrow's

Employment & Training Resources

Marlborough • Newton • Norwood

Since 1982, Operation ABLE has served the employment needs of nearly 30,000 mature workers from economically, racially, and occupationally diverse backgrounds in Massachusetts. Through training programs, employment services, advocacy, and collaboration with public agencies and the business community, they enable mature workers to successfully transition into meaningful employment.

Event Topics include:

- ✚ Statistics on the Mature Worker and employment in today's weak economy
- ✚ Information on the Mature Worker in tomorrow's economy
- ✚ How to prepare for the hiring needs of companies when the Mature Worker will be in demand
- ✚ Success Secrets & Stories ~ what works, what doesn't help
- ✚ Overview of Operation ABLE programs and services offerings
- ✚ Questions & Answers...an opportunity to ask the tough questions

When: Friday January 13, 2012, 10:00 until 12:00

Where: Employment & Training Resources ~ Newton 449 Newtonville Avenue, Newton, MA 02460

Interested candidates need to register for this event. Please contact the Newton office to reserve a space at 617-928-0530. Event starts promptly at 10:00 am so kindly be on time!

Operation A.B.L.E. of Greater Boston

Providing Training and Employment Services for Mature Workers Since 1982